

Maxine Robinson

June 25, 1934 - June 15, 2019

Maxine Robinson, daughter of the late Lonnie and Emma Watson-Blue, was born on June 25, 1934 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She was called home on June 15, 2019 after 84 years of life on this earth dedicated to her family.

She received her education in North Carolina before settling in Baltimore, Maryland where she began her career as a chef at multiple country clubs. Cooking was her passion but she was the best at everything she did, whether it be sewing for one of her kids, or beating someone in a spades game. Among her plethora of hobbies, going to church was most prominent. Maxine was a lifelong member of Pilgrim's Way Baptist Church.

Maxine soon gave birth to three children: Jerome, Robert and Patricia. She later went on to marry the late Alfred C. Robinson, and out of this union three more children were born: Gregory, Marshall and Pamela.

Maxine made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and loving wife, mother, grandmother and sister. She made sure everyone around her was happy and healthy.

She leaves to mourn: her two sons, Robert Reese and Gregory Robinson; two daughters, Patricia Pollock, and Pamela Ward; four brothers, Lonnie, William, Danny, and Barnell Blue; four sisters, Dorethea Reese, Juanita Ramsey, Wyvetra Yeldell, and Emma Davis. As well as a host of grandchildren, in addition to numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives, and friends. A special acknowledgement to her son-in-law, Dennis Ward. She treated him like he was her own son. He was her care giver in times of need and he was always supportive. Also, a special acknowledgement to her long time caregiver Francine Jackson.

She will be missed by all.
