

Maxine Tyler Thomas

April 20, 1948 - October 20, 2008

Our beloved wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, sister and friend, Maxine Tyler Taylor was born April 20, 1948 in Charles City, Virginia to the late Alice Bradby Tyler Crawley and Lewis Beverly Tyler. She attended the public schools of Charles City County, Virginia. She joined St. John Baptist Church at an early age, later moving her membership to Little Elam Baptist Church, where she remained a member until her demise. She worked for Nabisco Kraft Foods for more than 35 years, looking forward to the day of retirement. But only the Lord knew best. We the family give gratitude to God for the warmth to her family, the radiance of her personality, the gentleness of her disposition, the depth of her compassion, the concern for all, her faithfulness and recognition of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She leaves to mourn her passing, yet to rejoice in her triumph, husband, Samuel P. Thomas; daughter, Deneal T.

Harris (Byron, Sr.); son, Teicher T. Thomas; stepmother, Mae L. Tyler; stepson, S. Pernell Thomas, Jr. (Beth); brother, Beverly J.R. Tyler; two granddaughters, Joy B. Harris and Taylor Crawley; nephew, Brandon Todd Tyler; four aunts, Lula T. Fleming, Patricia T. Humphrey, Martha T. White, and Gracie C.B. Vessel; three god-daughters, step-grandchildren, several cousins, other relatives and friends, among them devoted, Alice V. Johnson, Jacqueline Davis (Isiaah), Margaret Lane (Buck), and Bibby Rowe (Pat).

“ To the family of Ms Thomas, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dearly loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy and that same verse reveals: "The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death". Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
