

May Bell Butler

January 22, 1940 - January 27, 2014

May Bell Butler was born on January 22, 1940 in Lillington, NC to the late Ammeretta and Henry Mitchell. The Lord saw fit to take His daughter home on January 27th at Franklin Square Hospital.

May moved to Baltimore, MD in 1965 to be with her sister. She married the late Charles Butler, and from this union a handsome son was born, the late Victor Allen Butler, Sr.

May loved to cook and bake and she enjoyed her own cooking! She would always say, "I know exactly how it's gonna taste before it's done!" Her lasagna and sweet potato pies surely are going to be missed. She always loved to wear hats, so bright and colorful and they always had to match her clothes and shoes! She would always look in the mirror every morning and say "good morning beautiful" She always knew she looked good...and she did!" She was a kind-hearted Christian woman who met no strangers. Wherever she went, she would strike up a conversation and later say "that's my friend!" She was so supportive to anyone who needed help, no matter how tired she was.

May joined Spread The Word Cathedral under the leadership of Pastor Vernon McBride in 1989. She was a devoted intercessory Prayer Warrior, Missionary, faithful choir member, and was devoted to the Women's Ministry. She enjoyed going to church and fellowshiping with her friends and family.

Her favorite song was "Somebody Prayed for Me" and her favorite Bible verse was Psalm 91.

Her family was her world! She was an inspiration of love and showed abundant aspiration for everyone she met. She was vibrant, beautiful, and very talkative. Her strong faith and belief in God helped her through everything.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving sister Jessie; her wonderful brother Johnny; her niece Jackie; her nephews Terry and Theo, great niece Tiffany; her grandchildren Michael, Erica, Stacy, Victor Jr. and great grandchildren, best friend Deborah; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Aunt May Bell,

*Always so loving, thoughtful and kind,
what beautiful memories you leave behind.
You may have left this world behind,
But you will never leave our hearts and mind
A gentle nature,
A heart of gold, these are the memories we will hold.*

*Tears in my eyes will wipe away,
But the love in my heart
Is there to stay.*

*Words are few, thoughts are deep,
Memories of you are ours to keep
You were gone before we knew
God put His arms around you.*

*He took you in His care,
And led you along Heaven's pathway
To keep you with Him there.
Today, tomorrow, our whole life through,
We will always remember you.*

*Love,
Selena Elliott and Family
