

Mayme T. Goines

April 26, 1926 - October 9, 2006

MAYME RUTH TAYLOR, daughter of the late John H. and Lillia Ringgold Taylor, was born on April 26, 1926. She departed this world on October 9, 2006 after having battled coronary disease for several years. "Ruth," as she was affectionately called, was raised in Greenville, North Carolina by parents who strongly believed in their faith in God. She was grounded by her parents to also believe in the power of education, thus, graduating from Greenville's Eppes High School, and later obtaining a B.S. degree in Sociology from Morgan State College as well as an M.S. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. "Ruth" married Sylvester Goines and from that union came her three daughters Sylvia (now deceased), Gwendolyn and Vestra. She worked for many years as a social worker for Baltimore City, even heading a department agency before her retirement. "Ruth" was a long time member of St. Ann's Catholic Church. She participated in activities such as The Young In Heart Club, the Parish Council, and the Choir. She loved St. Ann's and gave of her time there as much as she could. "Ruth" is survived by two daughters, Vestra Ashe and Gwendolyn Neale; two sons-in-law, Willie Ashe and Edward S. Neale; two brothers, John H. Taylor III and Charles L. Taylor; two sisters, Sara Smith and Imogene Dupree; one brother-in-law, "Smitty"; two sisters-in-law, Amy S. Taylor and Peggy Taylor; grandchildren, Catherine Lewis, Michael Ashe, Kimberly Moton, Stephen Wesson, Edward Neale II, and Sheri Neale; great grandchildren, Allondre Wellons, Kahlil Moton, Kyahinah Wesson, Jordon Gaines and Jaidah Lewis. "Ruth" leaves behind a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
