“ I am DEEPLY SADDENED to learn of the passing of Mrs. Hargrove!!! I will always remember her as a very DISTINGUISHED woman of GOD who loved and was loyal and faithful to her FAMILY, CHURCH and COMMUNITY. I met Mrs Hargrave over 37 years ago when she and her late husband, Mr. Sam, opened their home and their loving hearts to babysit my daughter, ASHLEE CELESTE SPELLMAN MILLER. TRULY A WELL DEFINED LADY who always exhibited AN AMAZING TOUCH OF CLASS!!!! WHAT A MAJOR VOID!!!! She will definitely be missed all who had the honor to know her. May her soul now rest in ETERNAL PEACE

“ Aunt Mayola, thirty-one years ago you played a big part @ my wedding, you were happy that I asked you to partake in it. I will miss your wisdom, love phone calls and fond memories. God bless you with 100 years, that is a blessing all by itself. As we celebrate and honor your life well lived, we give God all the honor and the glory. RIP until we meet again. Love your niece, Theresita (Terri) Pleasants-Lewis

“ Aunt Mayola,
Thank you for the love you shared with our family. When I asked you what your prayer request was before I prayed with you, you simply said that you'd walk in God's way. That's what you've done these past 100 years. Enjoy walking now in His streets of gold.
