

Mazzie Wilson

August 28, 1918 - August 10, 2008

Mazzie Alston Wilson, was born on August 28, 1918, in Pittsboro, North Carolina to the late William and Mattie Alston. She departed this life on August 10, 2008 after a short illness at The Frankford Rehabilitation Center. Mazzie received her education in the North Carolina public school system. After moving to Baltimore she found employment in house keeping, but later pursued a career as a hair stylist. Mazzie married the love of her life Mathaer Wilson. They loved to entertain family and friends. Mazzie had an insatiable zest for life and lived it to the fullest with no regrets. Her greatest joy in life was her family and she loved spending time with her nephews, nieces, and godson. There was nothing Mazzie wouldn't do for her loved ones and she loved to cook for them on special occasions. Mazzie joined the Mt. Hope Baptist Church where she worshipped in body and in spirit as well, although at times her health didn't permit her to attend. The Mt. Hope Church family continued to make regular visits with her at her home and shared prayers and communion. Mazzie leaves to cherish her loving memory, nephews, Wade Emerson of Baltimore, Maryland, Raymond Emerson of North Carolina, Stanley Austin of Baltimore, Maryland and Salerno Austin of Baltimore, Maryland, nieces, Vanessa Austin of Baltimore, Maryland and Evonne Baldwin of North Carolina; great nieces, Karen and Linda Emerson of Baltimore, Maryland; a godson, Brandon Baylor of Baltimore, Maryland; and a loving circle of other nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great nephews as well as a host of cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mazzie Wilson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Wilson's ! Sending my fellow feeling to all. It hurt lossing a dear loved one after almost 91 year. Life was not to be so sad, we will be able to enjoy it to the full in the near future as the bible say at Ps.145:16.Old one will be young again, no more tears of sorrow and pain and death, Rev.21:3-5, Why because our creator is making all things New.I am so looking forward to that happening. I have a mother 85 years old and life on a Paradise earth sound GREAT to the ear. May the gift of treasured memories support you all on the journey of life.##imported-begin##L.D.C##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family of Mazzie Wilson I called my Aunt Mazzie on her birthday and did not get an answer, I was praying that she was still alive. Aunt Mazzie and her husband Mathaer Wilson were so dear to me. Uncle Mathaer is my mother's brother. She has three sister-in laws in north Carolina. I will informed them of her death. As a little girl I would visit them and spend a couple of weeks. Those were great times. I will truly miss her. I would call her throughout the year to check on her. My Deepest sympathy##imported-begin##Dora Wilson Hearn##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Family, My sincere condolences goes out to you. May you find comfort in Almighty God promises at John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3-5. Please take the time to read those promises and find comfort during this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM