

McCulloh Thomas

February 15, 1912 - October 15, 2001

Peacefully on October 15, 2001 McCulloh Thomas departed this world at Millennium Health and Rehabilitation Home on Liberty Heights. He was born February 15, 1912 to the late Presley and Beathy Thomas in Williamsburg County, Kingtree, South Carolina. He left his home in 1937 going to Gallivant Ferry, South Carolina. He worked as a sharecropper. He received Christ as his Savior at the St. Elizabeth Baptist Church in Aynor, South Carolina. At that time he was united to Dorothy Best of Anyor, South Carolina and from that union on child was born. (Francis) In 1937 he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and there he met and married Mother Maggie Hopewell in 1947. Joining with her church The Supreme Council of the House of Jacob Church. He was a member of Local Union No. 194; he worked as laborer until his health began to decline. He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Frances Johnson and son-in-law Ossie Johnson of Newark, New Jersey; two grandchildren, Mrs. Blanche Johnson of Upper Marlboro, Maryland; Marquetta and Jimmy Brantley of Newark, New Jersey; three great-grandchildren, Shannon, Laquan and Mica; three great-great grandchildren, Antwan, Dajuan, Jazmin, and special friends at the church Gilmore and Maggie Barksdale.

Tribute Wall

“ McCulloh Thomas

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM