

McKinley A. Clayburn

July 2, 1928 - February 9, 2013

McKinley Alexander Clayburn was born July 2, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life the morning of February 9, 2013 at Good Samaritan Hospital of Baltimore, MD.

McKinley was one of three children born to Jessie and James Howard Clyburn who were from North Carolina(McKinley's brother and sister both died at an early age). Jessie changed the family name to Clayburn because she did not like the name Clyburn McKinley upon graduation entered the military and served in the U.S. Army from March 1951 until February of 1957 and held the rank of SP-2 McKinley met and married Mary E. Matthews in 1959 of Baltimore of which two sons were born of this union; Mark and Myron Clayburn.

McKinley , after honorable discharge from the Army, began his civilian career working for the U.S.

Postal Service until his early retirement due to his disability. McKinley's marriage to Mary ended in divorce and he remarried years later Brenda Cooper of Baltimore which also ended in divorce.

McKinley, in his later years, lived with good friend Mr. Richard Booth of Baltimore, MD who was caretaker, McKinley was a giving person who loved spending the remaining days in the company of his friends in his neighborhood.

McKinley leaves to cherish his memory; his sons, Mark and Myron Clayburn; step-daughter, Shirley Cooper; daughter-in-law June Clayburn; granddaughter, Megan Clayburn; grandsons, Joshua Millings and Mckhi Clayburn; good firend, Richard Booth and many relatives and friends in his neighborhood.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
