

Meisha C. Daniels

January 27, 1970 - January 9, 2021

MEISHA C. JOHNSON DANIELS was born on January 27, 1970 to Lucille and the late Leon Johnson.

Meisha was educated at Baltimore City Public Schools. She attended beauty school and did hair for friends and family.

Meisha also worked as a security guard at Social Services, Penn North, Memorial Stadium at Ravens games and the Universoul Circus. She made and sold jewelry at flea markets and around town.

She loved to cook and sold dinners from her home. Meisha always had her backyard grill fired up. Meisha loved to sing and often sang at weddings, funerals and events. She enjoyed fishing and often went with family and friends. She did volunteer work passing out food and dinners, but most of all, Meisha was a homemaker and stay-at-home Mom. From preschool up until her passing she volunteered at her kids schools, going on trips, school events, rallies and protests for better education.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Phillip Daniels; three sons, Keenan Brown, Phillip Daniels Jr., Cortez Daniels; one daughter, Makalah Daniels; one step-daughter, Shanell Daniels; mother, Lucille Johnson; one brother, Karl Omar Johnson; two sisters-in-law and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ We knew Meisha as friend, mama, neighbor and chef. As a friend, she was a constant fixture in our day to day routine. We’d wave across the street as we took kids to school and activities. As a mama, she was a second mom to my kids. My youngest always wanted to go to Ms Meisha’s when we needed a sitter. There were countless late night phone calls when, as moms, we were comparing notes as to what our boys were up to. There were pool and dance parties and she even cooked up so much fried chicken for my son’s graduation that she could slide across her kitchen floor from the grease. As a neighbor, her incredible compassion and care did not go unnoticed. She loved Ms Betty unlike any other. She was also the best late night neighborhood watch we had. I’d often get a call first thing in the morning to let me know what was happening while I slept. As a chef, it was a normal occurrence for her and my husband to send plates of good back and forth to share their passion for food with one another. One of her greatest gifts to this earth, is the incredible children she raised. I know she was tough at times, but Keenan, Phillip, Cortez and Makalah, you were always the center topic of our conversations. She loved you something fierce. The Potlers have forever been impacted by her friendship and kindness.
Meisha, we will miss you.

“ *Mimi,
We have so many memories. The best 'Mama' friend I have. We certainly knew how to find some fun, mostly in the back yard, LOL. Always there for one another. Thank you for being my friend and for allowing me and my family to mesh with yours. We are all better for our friendship. I will miss you dearly and have no idea how I will function in the neighborhood without you. I love ya!*
