

Melanie L. Griffin

January 7, 1978 - October 25, 2014

MELANIE LENISE GRIFFIN was born January 7, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late William F. Arrington and Denise C. McGregor.

Melanie attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

Through all adversities, Melanie was able to obtain her G.E.D. and had a passion for caring for people. She enjoyed her work at The Chimes as a medical technician, as well as working for the State of Maryland.

Aunt Mel, Mel, Melbell, Applehead, or Worm, as she has been called, loved to party and have fun. Mel has been known to take on the traits of her parents at times, mainly one of her late mother Denise McGregor, feeding the entire block. As witnessed by her sisters, Melanie was known to give people her last. She is survived by: two children, Justice Griffin and Jehovah Griffin; three siblings, Regina Arrington, William F. Arrington II, and Dawn Arrington-Akinniyi; one brother-in-law, Akin Akinniyi; nephews Kelvin, Tavon, DeShawn, Deonta Fitzgerald; William III, and Khaila Arrington; two nieces, Kendal Smith and Kendra Arrington-Akinniyi; and a host of cousins, other relatives, co-workers, church members and close friends.

“ At the age of twelve you decided to pick as you always did. I threw papers at you, you tossed a pillow laughed and ran ... As i got up to come after you i slipped and fell. You felt it was HILARIOUS until you realized i was hurt... all I can say is, we laughed, did things together and apart, things no one will ever know or believe, and through the fussing, cursing, hurt, pain, laughter we loved as no one can EVER nor will understand. I loved and hated that you would say to your friends "this is my twin." As we have last said to each other even our last recent visit, I NEVER STOPPED LOVING YOU💕... Rest peacefully Worm.
