

Melanie P. Johnson

August 12, 1952 - February 25, 2017

MELANIE PATRICIA MILES JOHNSON, daughter of the late Francell Miles and Melanie Jane Miles was born on August 12, 1952 in the old Baltimore County neighborhood in Maryland known as the Sollers Homes Housing Development in Turners Station. She departed this life on Saturday, February 25, 2017 after a lengthy illness. Though she suffered often in silence, she refused to allow her illness to slow her down.

Affectionately known as “Mel” she was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1970. Melanie was married for a short time but divorced soon after. She later joined the United States Army Reserves. Following her discharge she returned home and began taking courses for computer certifications at the Baltimore City Community College.

Melanie was a very enterprising young lady. She worked several years in the banking industry, and also had a long twenty-eight year career with the Baltimore City Department of Housing. In addition, she established and operated an Assisted Living facility and later opened and operated a small thrift store before her health began to decline.

Anyone who knew her, knew how much she loved her family and friends. Favorite pastimes of Melanie would always include traveling with her friend, shopping and most of all dressing up for any occasion.

She leaves to mourn: two brothers, Paul A. Holmes and Francell A. Miles (estranged); one sister-in-law, Linda Mitchell-Holmes; two nieces, Briana Holmes Penny and Ebony Holmes; three great-nieces, Brittany, Bianca and Sydney; one great-great-nephew, Braylen; a special friend, Wycliffe Eccles (daughters Leslie and Nandy); and a hosts of cousins, relatives and friends.
