“ A wonderful birth took place on this earth. A blessing delivered to life. This was no mystery, God made history producing someone so nice. If you would like to know who that person is, here's a clue, let's make it clear, just look in the mirror because someone is you.##imported-begin##M. Pearson##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Baby Melody L. Jefferson. Losing a loved one in death is a difficult and painful experience especially someone so young as Baby Melody. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his son, Jesus Christ, and come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Melly Mel...I'm so sorry you had to go like this. Words can't express how I feel. You've made me look at life in a whole different way. I remember as a baby when you would cry and cry. You would cry until me or Renee picked u up. I also remember when u started walking...you actually learned on the bed. Everytime we looked at you, you would plop down on the bed and smile like you didn't want us to catch you. You were the happiest baby without a care in the world... you were our baby. You were our light. I look at your picture today and I try to imagine what happened to you but I only depress myself wondering if there was a way to prevent this. I love you Melly Mel and you will forever be missed. Sleep in peace my love and please watch over us because its going to be a rough one.##imported-begin##Joy Green##imported-end##
