“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. Words are hard to find at this time. John 5:28-29 offers great encouragement. It states do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out. “ So sorry to hear of your loss. Please accept my belated condolences. The Bible rightly describes death as an enemy that separates our loved ones from us. That same passage also informs us that death will be done away with.(1 Corinthians 15:26) What about our loved ones who have been taken by death? The Bible loving promises us at Daniel 12:2 that there will be a resurrection "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." Other scriptures help us to see that these ones will wake up to a beautiful paradise earth. (Luke 23:43, Matthew 5:5 and Psalm 37:9-11) May these divinely inspired promises bring you solace and peace.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of I offer my most heartfelt condolences. It is very hard to lose a loved one, and so heartbreaking to lose a child. I know, because I too lost a son. But my hope is also in the promises of Jehovah God and Jesus; to bring our loved ones back to life in a peaceful new world. WE all long for that new world to come. Until then, my dear brothers and sisters, may we all continue to have plenty to do in the work of the Lord, knowing that our labor is not in vain in connection with the Lord." This is what would have wanted us to do. Then when we see our children again in the resurrection, we will be able to say: "Death, where is your victory? "Death, where is your sting? 1st Cor. 15:55. May our loving father, Jehovah, continue to give you the strength that you need to go on, as well as the comfort. May your memories of bring you much joy. I look forward to meeting her in the new world, as well as your family.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
