“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 calls death our enemy. That same verse reveals that death will one day be destroyed. There is much hope for our loved ones who have died. Acts 24:15 declares "...there is going to be a resurrection..." May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family and friends of Dr. Bennett, please accept my sincere condolences on your loss. Truly death is an enemy that tragically stalks us all. It is an event that we can hardly come to grips with, the pain cuts so deeply. Almighty God is well aware of the pain we feel, and because of his deep love for us he took steps to undo what Adam and Eve through their disobedience brought upon the whole world of mankind. That is why Romans 5:12 tells us, "Just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned," Jehovah God though, has purposed to rid the world of sin and its consequence death, by the ransom sacrifice of his beloved son, Christ Jesus. John 3:16 tells us that God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son , in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." So family, I hope and pray that you can obtain much comfort from the scriptures as well as your cherished memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
