

Melvin L. Brown

July 22, 1968 - March 7, 2025

MELVIN LYNDON BROWN a. k. a. “Lynn” was born on July 22, 1968, in Baltimore County (Turner Station) to the Late Melvin Brown, Sr. and Jessie Woodward Brown. He departed this life on March 7, 2025, at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Although Lynn was an child, he was never lonely growing up because of his many cousins. He had a passion for riding dirt bikes and motorcycles. Lynn attended Baltimore county Schools until he relocated to Allentown, PA with Lynn 's mother as a teenager and graduated from Liberty High School in, Bethlehem, PA in 1987. While in Pennsylvania he had his three children and met many good friends along the way. Some of his nicknames included “Lynn”, “Mel B” and the “The Juice”.

Lynn had many memorable attributes; one being very Charismatic and having the ability to make people laugh. Many times, he would be the life of the party. His career included HVAC (heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning),, and he obtained his C D Ls (Commercial Driver's License at Allstate and became a licensed truck driver. On February 16, 2007, he married Linda Kemp, the love of his life, in Baltimore, Maryland and she has been by his side ever since.

Lynn was preceded in death by his father, Melvin Brown, Sr. any many other family members. Lynn is survived by his loving wife, Linda Brown; his three children, Tanaea Brickhouse, Cherelle and Lyndon Brown; his mother Jessie W. Brown; six grandchildren, four stepsons and many other family members and friends
