

Melvin Chase

February 14, 1947 - January 27, 2023

MELVIN CHASE was born on February 14, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Anna S. Hall and Phillips S. Hall. He departed this life on January 25, 2023 unexpectedly.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System.

He later spent time in Job Corps learning new skills.

Melvin was employed 44 ½ years with the Baltimore City Highway of Transportation as Heavy Equipment operator

Melvin was affectionately call “Toasty” by family and friends.

He loved going to try different places to eat and shopping in home improvement stores and junk stores. He was known for starting many projects and leaving them unfinished, but would say “My project isn’t paying me to finish,” If you knew him just sitting in his company telling his stories and many jokes about his experiences would have you falling out your seat, especially those wild and crazy ones.

On February 14, 1969 Melvin married Joann, and from this union there were two daughters and one son

Melvin knew Christ in his own special way. He will sincerely be missed by everyone who knows him.

Melvin leaves to cherish his "Legacy of Love" to: his two sisters, Victoria Hamilton Anna Ford-Bey; two brothers, Saxton and Cecil Chase; brothers-in-law, Frank Dixon (Chicago); sister-in-law, Phyllis "Skeet" Banks (Buffalo); two daughters, Yolanda E. Chase, and Philomenia Alexander, son, Shawn M. Preston; eight grandchildren, Ikeia D. Alexander, Marquis L. Rodgers, Deshawn Preston (Trayvon S. Rodgers preceded him in death); three great-grandchildren, Desire Q. Preston, Logan D. Rodgers and Zionny Alexander; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friend. He was also preceded in death by Phillip S. Hall (father) and Anna S. Hall (mother), Joann D. Chase (wife), Sedgwick Chase (brother), Francis Dixon (sister), Samuel Brown (brother) and Trayvon S. Rodgers (grandson)
