

Melvin E. Clayton

July 1, 1941 - June 24, 2002

Melvin E. Clayton, son of the late Charles Hamilton and Bessie Clayton, was born on July 1, 1941, and departed this life after a lengthy illness. He was the sibling to four brothers and sisters. Melvin was educated in Baltimore City Public School System. He was also employed with the Sparrows Point Shipyard for many years. After retirement Melvin volunteered for many years at St. Ann's Outreach Center. And worked as a part-time Security/Maintenance man for the past seven years. Melvin possessed a kind, gentle, loving spirit and was always ready to bestow the sunshine of his smile and soft-spoken words of encouragement's to any and everyone that was blessed to encounter him. He leaves to celebrate his life and home going journey, his sister, Mary Clayton of Baltimore, Md., devoted nephew, Norman W. Dickey, of Baltimore, Md., and a host of other relatives and friends. TRIBUTE TO MELVIN We loved you so much, but saw that the road was getting rough, the hills were hard to climb. He gently closed his loving eyes and whispered "Peace be Thine." His weary hours, his days of pain, his weary nights are past. His patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

Tribute Wall

“ Melvin E. Clayton

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Thinking of you at this time of sorrow and hoping you will find comfort in warm memories of your loved one.##imported-begin##Pauline Lewis and Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our condolences in this time of great sorrow for you. The love you shared will help sustain you and bring you peace.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster & The Thornton Family##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM