

Melvin E. Craddock

November 30, 1949 - June 23, 2006

MELVIN EDWARD CRADDOCK, son of John Allen Craddock Sr. and the late Geraldine Lavinia Eller Craddock, was born on November 30, 1949 in Baltimore, Md. He departed this life on June 23, 2006 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at City College High School in Baltimore. Upon completion of his education, he entered the U.S. military service and was later employed by the City of Baltimore and Johns Hopkins Hospital. Melvin was a very meek and private man, who through his suffering, gave his life to Christ while in the midst of his storm. He leaves to mourn: his father, John Allen Craddock Sr.; son, Melvin Jordan Craddock; daughter, Tracey Craddock Brown; four brothers, John Allen Craddock Jr., Sidney Larue Craddock, Paige Jeffery Craddock and Charles McNeill; six grandchildren, Ivan J. Craddock, Melaya T. Craddock, Brittany Mellerson, Kiara Brown, Miles Bell and Jalen Bowie; fiancée, Penny Lewis; two stepchildren, Daniele Lewis and Angelcia Edwards; three sisters-in-law, Annette Craddock, Oralee Craddock and Angela Craddock; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Melvin made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is our enemy and the same verse promises that one day death itself will be done away with. The Bible holds out the prospect for many to be brought back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Revelation 21:4) Acts 24:15 declares- "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your loved one in death. Death is a terrible tragedy that leaves deep scars on our heart that only our loving heavenly father can erase. One day soon he promises to bring an end to sickness and death, which has plagued mankind far too long. We all need relief. Acts 24:15 lets us know that the dead will be ressurected. May that thought strengthen you and help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
