

Melvin D Edmonds

March 21, 1939 - April 1, 2017

When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange on March 21, he leaves a gift of William and Anna Edmonds was born. The sting of death came to Melvin April 1, 2017.

“ O death where is thy sting, O grave, where is thy victory.”

Melvin received his education through the Baltimore City School System, where his natural intelligence showed great promise. His extracurricular activities were football, pigeons, and running. Melvin also sang with a quartet, dew-wop was his specialty.

Melvin and the former Freddie Marshall were married July 1960 and from this union, Debra Denise, Darrell Delano, and Dwayne Dereke were born. Melvin was employed at the Maryland Cup Company for some years, but due to a back injury became disabled. When his mother became ill, Melvin was willing and able to become her caregiver. God Bless! He was a loyal and devoted son, dedicated to providing for all of his mother's needs.

Later in his life, Melvin suffered renal failure and required dialysis treatment. This he did without complaint or regrets. The dialysis center became a large part of his life. He formed many friendships there, both person and professional. To God Be The Glory! Pastor Donald Jones welcomed Melvin onto the threshold of God.

To the end of a life well spent, Melvin leaves fond and funny memories to many relatives and friends. His daughter, Debra Edmonds (George), his son, Darrell Edmonds (Jackie). And his son, the late Dwayne Edmonds; grandchildren Nicole Edwards, Darrell Edmonds, Jr. Dwayne Edmonds, Jr. Dwayne

(Donta) Edmonds, Chantel Williams, Jani Palmer , and Marie Palmer, great-grandchildren Airyanna, Kimora, Lynia, Nyomi, Jaylon, Mason, and Makayla; his devoted sisters, Reba Edmonds Brown and Doris Edmonds Holt generations, of nieces and nephews, cousins and Host cousins

“We don't know when we will breathe our last breath but we can believe the promise that Jesus prepare a place for us in His Father's house”
