Melvin Sharrod "Nukkie" Edwards, son of Janet Edwards and John W. Clark of Richmond was born November 19, 1981. He left this earthly life suddenly when he was called home to be the Lord.

He received his education in the Richmond Public Schools System. Having been reared in a loving home, he began his days with a bowl of cereal and ended it with the same. He loved to play basketball and be around his family.

To know him meant understanding his lingo. Nukkie would say "I love it when a plan come together!!" If he saw you with a shopping bag of any kind he would say "Y'all show getting plenty money out here!! Muu Muu is this my change right here?" He kept a smile on his face always and never spoke a bad word about anyone.

We had just started to know eachother in that time you touch me. You were open, honest, very out spoken but at the same time lovable kind and sweet. You were a Angel here as I know you are there. You will be Truly Miss and Love by all who knew you and Loved you. Rip Sweetie.
