

Melvin H. Cade

February 3, 1953 - October 10, 2001

“Riches lie within us, not in material possessions. Our real riches are the riches of the head and heart.” Melvin H. Cade, Jr., son of the late Colonel Melvin H. Cade, Sr. and Willie Douglas Cade, was born February 3, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 10, 2001. Melvin received his education at Frederick Douglass High School. Melvin loved music and followed an early career as the organist for Little Ricky and the Deltones in 70’s. He traveled extensively in and out of the State with the Group. Later, Melvin became a member of the group known as The Ten Carats Gold Band. Melvin worked for the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, The Wackenhut Security Agency as well as the Truck Quality Brand Distributing Company as a driver. On January 8, 1992 Melvin joined the staff of The March Funeral Homes as an Assistant to the Funeral Directors. This is when Melvin realized his calling as gentleman’s gentleman and a people person. Melvin had a unique method of helping families find peace with themselves. Families constantly requested his service and Melvin always delivered more than expected—an unsurpassable service. Our Melvin was described by his friends and co-workers as classy, extremely mannerly, giving, friendly, etc. He had a way of hugging all the ladies at work that made them feel special. Melvin knew and loved the Lord. Early in his life, he joined Enon Baptist church, in March of 2001, Melvin joined Pleasant Rock Baptist Church under the guidance and direction of Reverend Timothy Lofton. Melvin leaves to mourn one son, Melvin H. Cade, III; one daughter, Keisha Cade; one granddaughter, Kymah Clark;

one loving sister, Deborah Ann Cade-Yawn; one brother-in-law, Ralph E. Yawn; his long time companion, Bernice Sessoms and a host of other relatives and friends. Dear Dad, I wish I had known your time was so near, Now in my heart, I feel pain and fear You wanted to leave, and only God knows why, I only wish I had the chance to say good-bye. My time with you was little, but I've loved you from the start, So forever and ever, you will remain in my heart You're my father, I'm your son, and this we know is true I have but one regret, I wish I could have been there for you. Your Son, Melvin Cade III

“ Hi my name is Kathy Stewart my memory of my friend Melvin was in 1971 he saved me from being stranded he saved me from being stranded from a after prom party. My date left me, it was late, Melvin asked me where was everybody? I didn't realize how late it was. I told him my date left me. Melvin said I'll take you home, little did he know it was in Cherry Hill. He did it any way, we became fast friends. I met his dad, and Sister Debbie when they were living on Windsor Ave.. I am shocked, & sadden to learn of his passing. My deepest 💔condolences to the family. He was truly a GENTLEMAN

“ To Melvin's family we loved him, but God loved him best. Every death creates a special pain unique to each survivor. Death that comes without a warning can leave an especially terrible grief. Yet, though it may not seem possible at the moment, you can and will work through your grief. Look to God. He will work it out for you.###imported-begin##Brenda Holmes###imported-end##

“ I wish to give my deepest sympathy to the family and let them know that I truly share in your hurt. I was initially trained for my position at March F/H by Melvin. I encourage you to be strong. Sometimes we just have to stand against the winds of the storm because even if we are blown over by them Jesus will pick us up. Place your broken hearts in the hands of God where they belong and continue to be faithful...God bless you.##imported-begin##Calvin M. Vaughan (assistant F/D MFH)##imported-end##

“ TO DEBBIE AND FAMILY: I want to express my heartfelt sympathy upon the passing of Melvin. I, along with so many who had the privilege of knowing Melvin, will without a doubt certainly miss seeing his warm smile and hearing his cheerful greeting and/or sharing a joke or two. He was a true gentleman and friend. He was never too busy to take the time to ask - how\`ve you been doing. I know, at this time, it\`s unthinkable not to want to let him go, but one day the sadness and grief will slowly lift and only beautiful memories will prevail. I know Melvin is smiling down on us and saying, it is well. We all loved Melvin, but God has taken him into his arms and placed him around his throne. I continue to keep you and your family in my prayers. God bless and keep you.##imported-begin##Johnetta (Johnnie) Coles##imported-end##

“ To the family of Melvin Cade. I am deeply sadden of the lost of Melvin. I met him when my grandmother and grandfather died. He was the funeral director for both of them. I remember how professional and courteous he was to our family. He became friends with our family and would often stop by just to say hello. It may not mean anything to someone else, but to my family, it meant alot. Thank God for his life.##imported-begin##Lenora Pearson##imported-end##
