

Melvin Cleo Pulliam

June 19, 1955 - February 17, 2015

Melvin Cleo Pulliam, Jr., affectionately known as “Tutti”, son of Melvin and Margaret Pulliam, Sr. (who preceded him in death) was born on June 19, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home on February 17, 2015.

He received his education in the Baltimore City School System, graduating from Northern High School in 1974. Melvin also attended Morgan State University.

He worked various jobs until he was employed with Baltimore County in 1987, where he was affectionately known as “The highway man”.

Melvin met the love of his life in his teens, not knowing at the time, God would bring them back together in 1987, which alternately led to Holy Matrimony on May 14, 1993 and from that union came two children.

Melvin loved TV, a good Western, baseball and football. He was “the alternate Ravens Fan”. He loved being “Chef Boy Ar Dee” cooking on the grill. He especially loved his wife Adrienne and daughter Shazmira, who he called, “The Ant”. Melvin also loved hanging out with the Boyz (the crew), as often as possible.

Melvin leaves to mourn: his wife, Adrienne; two children, a son, Melvin III (who preceded him in death) and a daughter, Shazmira; a father and mother-in-law, Abraham and Annette Peoples; two brothers, Barry and Marvin (preceded him in death); one sister, Jean Toomer; four sisters-in-law, Nocy, Janie, Vashti and Vanessa; one brother-in-law, Robert; a God-sister, Brenda; God-daughter, Natarsha; two daughters-in-Christ, Carrima and Anaya; two first cousins that Melvin adored, John F. and Larry S.; and a host of truly devoted aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, brothers and sisters-in-Christ, other family and friends.

“ *Adrian & Daughter,
Please find enclosed my deepest sympathy in the loss of your husband and father.
There is so much that should be said at this time, but no words seem adequate. Adrian, remember I have walked this road and I know how you must feel right now.
Hope you know you're being thought of and loved and knowing that you will find comfort in knowing that Melvin, all he meant to you will remain in your heart forever. I have you and family in my prayers.*

*Much Love to You
