

Melvin O. Robinson

January 29, 1929 - March 12, 2014

MELVIN O. ROBINSON was born January 29, 1929 to the late Theodore W. and Evelyn Sarah Robinson in Baltimore, Maryland.

Suddenly on Wednesday, March 12, 2014, Melvin was called home to be with th Lord.

Melvin received his education from the Baltimore Public School System. Melvin attended New Shiloh Baptist church for many years until his health weakened.

Melvin retired in 1991 after many years of service for Patapsco Scrrpyard and later Southern Galvaning Company.

Melvin met and married the love of his life, the late Althea Robinson in 1948, and was blessed with their daughter Deborah.

Melvin was a warm, loving person, who enjoyed making people laugh and smile, and he was always willing to lend a helping hand to others.

Melvin leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted daughter, Deborah Robinson-Ghee; adopted daughters, Reba Dyson and Quinnetta Morgan, both of Baltimore; nieces, Nancy Robinson, Sheryl Woodson, Alma Beauford of Baltimore, Patricia Beck, Alice Dry-Grey of New York, and Chloe Robinson of Connecticut; nephews, Theodore Livers of Baltimore, Willie Mitchener, James Dry, Jay Beck and Michael Grey of New York; godchildren, Terrance McCombs of New Jersey, and Fazon Dry of New York; lifelong friend Roddie Wood; and a very good friend, Andrew; and a host of other family and friends.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises to resurrect our dear loved ones to a restored paradise earth. He even assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
