“ To The Family, I want to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I also want to share the comfort of John 5:28, 29 where we are promised that those who have fallen asleep in death have the hope of receiving a "resurrection" back to life. Life on an earth restored to a beautiful paradise. Psalms 37:11 says, "The meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." While we await that wonderful time please find comfort in these promises.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jordan##imported-end##

“ For His Loving Family. I want to give my deepest condolences to his wife, children, an all whom he touched. I would only pray to be able to share with a person, half of the love that you guys shared for each other for 22 years. The union he shared with his wife is truly inspirational. Even though I didn't have the honor to have a conversation with him as everyone else did I know it would have been a blessing! So much love during this time of healing Love Myeshia##imported-begin##Myeshia##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family of Melvin. It is so hard to deal with the death of someone we love; especially someone who had so much to live for. Reading about Melvin he no doubt had a wonderful family; a wife and 3 children, and he was so young. When such tragedies happen we often wonder why? Was this God's purpose to take away a loved one in his prime of life? Never was this the case. Jehovah God created life and he hates death. His purpose is stated at Isaiah 25:8 and Isaiah 33:24 which shows that sickness will be no more, and also he promises that he will swallow up death forever, and we know what happens when something is swallowed up. It's gone forever. As for the dead, he promises to resurrect them back to life. This is why he sent his most precious son to us; to undo all sorrow, pain and death forever; and through that ransom price he paid, we can receive everlasting life in a paradise world that he is creating. 2nd Peter 3:13 speaks of a new earth in which righteous conditions will dwell. Also Acts 24:15 lovingly promises a resurrection of the dead. May God's promises be a comfort to you in the days ahead. I would like to share with you more concerning God's wonderful purpose, so if you are interested, please contact me at my e-mail address.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
