

Melvina Bradford

February 28, 1930 - May 13, 2009

MELVINA BRADFORD, daughter of the late Robert Marks and Matilda Bradley-Marks-Northington, was born on February 26, 1930 in Brunswick County, Virginia. She departed this life on May 13, 2009 after a brief illness. She received her education in the Brunswick County School System in White Plains, Virginia. At an early age Melvina accepted Christ and was baptized at Meherrin Baptist Church in White Plains, Virginia. She moved to Baltimore at an early age to join her sister Mary and other family members. She became employed and attended The Faith Baptist Church on Bond Street where she met and married Julius Smith. Out of that union one daughter was born, Joyce. She later married George Bradford (who preceded her in death) and from that union she acquired one stepdaughter, Marcella. She later adopted a daughter, Sandra. Melvina made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a true friend and devoted family member. She leaves to mourn: daughters, Joyce Smith, Sandra Murphy, Marcella Randall; godson, Reginald Marshall; two grandson, Vernon Thomas and Sean Wilson; granddaughter, Tonya Green; five sisters, Dorothy Harrison and Katharyn Blackwell of Brodnax, Virginia, Corrine Marks of Washington, D.C., Lula Winkler and Ernestine Marshall of Baltimore; two stepsister, Edith Vincent and Aurelia Harding of New Jersey; two stepbrothers, C.J. and Julian Northington of Pennsylvania; great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find comfort in God and the promises contained in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
