

Melvina Brown White

May 4, 1924 - February 6, 2013

None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself.
If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord;
so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.
Romans 14:7-8

Melvina White, 88, of Richmond, Virginia was called to heaven's pearly gates, February 6, 2013 to be with her Lord and Savior. She was born in Rose Hill, North Carolina to Callie and Jesse Brown on May 4, 1924. She was preceded in death by her husband, John White; brother Charles Dean and sister Elizabeth McCoy.

Melvina enjoyed the fellowship of her spiritual family in the Church Hill area.

She was a hard worker that never complained. Melvina cherished life and all that it stood for. Her passion was in the healthcare industry as a private duty nurse helping and caring for her clients that lived in the Patterson Avenue and Tuckahoe area. After nursing, she gained employment at Hardy's where she retired.

She was a kind, loving, very caring, compassionate and supportive person who loved having fun with her family and friends. Anyone that knew her best, knew she enjoyed being a homemaker, loved all of her grands and would do anything for them. Melvina touched so many in so many ways and will be truly missed. She enjoyed gardening, cooking and sewing.

We know that she lives in the hearts and minds of those who knew and loved her as being upbeat and full of life. We were so fortunate to have had her in our lives and we feel empty without her. Melvina will always be remembered as a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, and friend to many.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory two loving daughters, Helen Whitaker and Shirl White Jackson; two caring sons, Robert McKeever and Douglas White (Tina); and a host of grands, great-grands, great-great-grands and great-great-great-grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

“ Happy Heavenly Birthday Granny, I love & miss you daily 🥰💕

Rochita Brown - May 04, 2020 at 09:03 AM

“ May you continue to rely on the God of all comfort as you patiently wait for Jesus Christ's promises at John 5:28, 29 and Matthew 5:5 to be fulfilled. What a wonderful time that will be when Jesus Christ restores our dead loved ones back to earth to be with us. Also, based on Isaiah 25:8, Almighty God will completely "swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces." No more will we have to experience grief from losing a loved one because of death. You have my deepest sympathies.

“ My condolences go out to the family. This must be a difficult time for the family, losing someone that you loved. May you gain strength by the promise of Jesus Christ to restore our dead loved ones back to life with us on earth as stated at Matthew 5:5 and John 5:28, 29.

Annitta Verrett - February 09, 2013 at 07:33 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
