“ May the family of Mera find comfort in their loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) Our loving Creator has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy.

“ I did not get the pleasure of knowing or ever meeting Mera but i heard nothing but all good and positive remarks about her from my husband Donte who is Mera cousin. I really do wish that i could have met her under other circumstances but when God knocks we must answer. Having gone through four family members of my own including my mother who all passed away due to cancer i know its a heavy load to carry and a long road to travel. Sometimes your knees get weak and you start to loose faith and question his decision but always remember that she is better off then we are, God has the cure and at the end of the day they are where they suppose to be waiting for the day when everyone can be together again. My family send Mera family our deepest sympathy

“ May God continue to comfort all who loved Ms. Campbell. We can all look forward to the time when death will be no more and instead of tears of sorrow there will be tears of joy. I'm sure she will be missed by many. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
