“ May you find much comfort from our loving heavenly father to help you to cope with losing your dear loved one, Meriam. Losing a loved one hurts our hearts more than anything else we have to endure in this life. This sadness was not God's purpose for us, because the bible speaks of Jehovah as the happy God who desires all of his earthly children to be happy as well. 1st Timothy 1:11. And certainly losing a loved one in death brings happiness to noone. That is why he promises to do away with all things that cause us sadness. One day there will be no more sickness, violence, pain, or death. Rev 21:3-5 lets us know that God will be with mankind and he will reside with them; and he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. In verse 5 he says, "Look! "I am making all things new." So one day we will be able to live eternally in peaceful and secure conditions. Then our dead loved ones will be raised back to life to share in that happiness. May you put all your trust in Jehovah's promises, as you await the day of salvation.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
