

Mr. Merle Ashe

September 3, 1942 - March 10, 2013

MERLE ASHE entered eternal peace on Sunday, March 10, 2013 at his home in Baltimore, Maryland after a lengthy illness. He was born in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina on September 3, 1942 to the late Charlie and Mary Ann Ashe.

He was raised and educated in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina. After completion of apprentice training, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and honed his craft as a painter. He became an employee of the United States Coast Guard, where he dedicated twenty-eight years of service before retiring in 2002.

To say that Merle was a dedicated family man would be an understatement. He cherished his role as a devoted husband and father. He was a strong proud man and provider. On April 21, 1973, he married his sweetheart and wife of thirty-nine years, Mary E. Ashe. Merle and Mary had an old school love built on trust and teamwork. They enjoyed a life filled with more joy, happiness and love than most people ever know. It was this love and devotion that showed in the way Mary dedicated her time and took excellent care of Merle during his illness. Merle will be sincerely missed by his family and everyone who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Mary E. Ashe; two sons, Maurio C.

Ashe and Marcus S. Ashe; three daughters, Tinzande Rosado, Jacqueline Roulhac-Leary (James) and Cassandra D. Roulhac; one sister, Mary E. Mosley; one brother, Charlie Ashe; five grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at Revelation 21:4 "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."

“ *To the family of Merle Ashe:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
