

Merline Winfield

November 10, 2015

Merline Winfield, daughter of the late Clayton and Wilhelmina Streater, was born on May 5, 1938 in Wadesboro, NC. She departed this life on November 10, 2015 after a lengthy illness. She was married to the late James Winfield. She developed a deep, personal relationship with Jesus and loved Him with all her heart. She attended the Faith Church of the Nazarene and Light House Community Church.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked various jobs. She settled and found joy in being a homemaker and caregiver.

She was a loving and caring mother, grandmother, mother-in-law and aunt. "Momma" enjoyed being a mother and grandmother. She touched her children and grandchildren in ways that one can't explain. Even through her illness the sight of one of her grandchildren brought her extreme happiness.

She leaves to mourn eight children, Wilvin Winfield, Janice Spears, Kenneth Winfield, Broderick Winfield, Paul E. Winfield, Paulette Winfield, Trina Winfield-Harlee and Natasha Winfield-Carter. Three son-in-laws; Andrew Michael Spears Sr., Kevin Harlee Sr. and Arthur Carter. Three daughter-in-laws; Karen Winfield, Tonya Winfield and Toni Winfield. Two sisters, Ruby Griffin and RonaMae Caraway. Two uncles, Scott Sowell and Arthur Sowell. Twenty-five grandchildren. Twenty-five great grandchildren. Two great great grandchildren and host of other relatives and friends.

Look for me in Rainbows

Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.

In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,

Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Time for me to leave you, I won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.

In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,

Just look for me and love me, and I'll be close to you.

It won't be forever, the day will come and then

My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.

Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;

Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.

Every waking moment, and all your whole life through

Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.

Just wish me to be near you,

And I'll be there with you.

My heartfelt sympathy goes out to the entire family and especially to my son-in-law "Kenny" and daughter Toni Winfield and family. Let Mama's smile continue to guide you with her love. God has chosen her to be in his garden as another beautiful flower and he didn't make a mistake because it was her time. For we know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Cherish your memories you have of her Mom share them with your children so that her legacy lives on in your family. God Bless You All near and far.
