

Mervyn Diamond Beckles

November 6, 1982 - January 19, 2006

MERVYN "DIAMOND" BECKLES JR., son of Mervyn D. Beckles Sr. and Robin Vick, was born on November 6, 1982 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 19, 2006. He received his education at Northern Senior High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Diamond became employed at the early age of thirteen, where he worked with his uncle Douglas Johnson in the home improvement business. He furthered his education by attending Lincoln Technical Institute where he received various skills in electrical technology and computer engineering. Diamond was always extremely talented in whatever field of interest that he took on. He presently was working for Thompson Industries where he worked as a wood finisher. He was baptized as one of Jahovah's Witnesses. Diamond made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Robin Vick; his father, Mervyn D. Beckles Sr.; his stepfather, Walter J. Vick; his grandmothers, Lena Beckles and Leola Vick; his sister, Tiffany Beckles; his only brother, Saba Harris; his aunts, Jacqueline, Randy, Cyneithia, Barbara, Shirley, Brenda, Maimah and Julia; his uncles, Earl, Martin, Shawn, Jimmy and Council; and a host of cousins and other relatives.

“ Hey Kiddo! Im sitting here at work, and you just came to mind. It seems like forever since I heard your silly laugh. Now that Im 40 I see things in a different perspective. We were just kids trying to figure things out and wanted to be men. I miss you brother, I have a wife and two wonderful kids. I did what we set out to do when we left our mothers homes. I wish this could've been the same for you. I love you bro and I will always carry your memory with me. You will never be forgotten!

“ I will never forget mervyn all the fun we had as roomates just leaves me with the stories and alot of good memories. He made me laugh i was honord to be his friend and i loved him and still do as a brother. We looked out for one another and just like real siblings we had falling outs but for the last three years all i can think about is how much i miss my friend. Ms Robin you raised a great young man. And i just miss him so much.##imported-begin##Marcus Jones##imported-end##

“ To the Robin & Family: I was truly saddened to hear about the passing of your "Diamond." You have my heartfelt condolences. We all feel a sense of loss and sadness concerning him. How we look forward to the fulfillment of God's promise to resurrect all those in the memorial tombs. Almighty God Jehovah has already furnished us with the guarantee by resurrecting his Son Christ Jesus. Our tears of sorrow will turn into tears of joy, as we welcome back Diamond. All of God's promises will come true, for it is impossible for Jehovah to lie. Once again, you have my heartfelt condolences. - John 5: 28 & 29, Hebrews 6:###imported-begin###Denise King###imported-end##

“ Merv, as i knew him was a very special person. He told me his middle name, only to tell me that it was few like him and he was right. I only knew him for a short period if time, which I wish could have lasted longer. I send out my deepest gratitude to his mother, whom he talked about on several occassions. Merv will greatly be missed.##imported-begin##Letisha Tyrell##imported-end##

“ To Robin, Joe and I offer our sincere condolences to you and yours. I never met Diamond, but always heard what a fine young man he was from his Aunt Cyneithia. She and I worked together at the IRS and I will always remember her talking about her nephew Diamond and his "big" eyes. At the time, I thought, "what a unique name...Diamond". Now,the name is so commonplace in todays' society,it seems as if "Diamond" has been around forever and not just 23 short years. He seems like such a fine,remarkable young man,I'm sorry we never met. Again, we offer you and yours our deepest sympathy in your time of need.##imported-begin##Jolene Harris##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mervyn Diamond Beckles Jr. please except my condolences for the loss of your son. To loss someone so young to death is truly hard. Please know my prayer are with your family at this time. There will be a time when we won't hear or see reports like what see and hear today because God's word the bible assure us that all things will be done away with at Revelation 21;3,4 says: With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:"Look! The tent of God (Jehovah God) is with mankind , and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Jesus Christ promises that the dead will hear his voice and come out to a resurrection of life isn't that wonderful. Please know that Jehovah God will never forget Mervyn and your family. I would like to end this with words we can truly trust Revelation 21:5 says: And the One seated on the throne said: "Look! I am making all things new". Also, he says:"Write, because these words are faithful and true". My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that at times we experience the pain associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort from the promised hope of the resurrection noted at Acts 24:15 and at John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
