

Micayla Yvonne Dean-Sinnie

April 2, 2009 - April 16, 2013

Micayla Yvonne Dean-Sinnie was born on April 2, 2009 at St. Mary's Hospital. She was an intelligent, articulate, spunky, determined, independent and compassionate four year old. Her dad's nickname for her was Bookie and her momma would call her Tinkabutt. She loved to have conversation with people and sometimes you forget her young age. Her smile would light up her face and when she walked into a room you immediately saw that beautiful smile. She always made her presence known!

Micayla enjoyed writing with her colored markers and pens. She loved to paint and color in her coloring books or just on a plain piece of paper. She would paint a picture specifically for someone in mind, so if you tried to claim the picture that wasn't for you, she would tell you it was not for you but she would be happy to make you one. Another passion of Cay's was books. She loved books and made sure you read them to her. Her book collection is enough to start a small library. If we went into a store that sold books she would want you to buy one for her. After you read the book to her, later on, maybe a week or so, she would pull it out and sit on the floor or couch and remember what the story was about and read it to you or to herself. Micayla was especially fond of books that had a lot of color in the pictures or as she would say, illustrations. Cay Cay was extremely specific with the shade of a color. Pink was not just pink. She would say it was hot pink or magenta or fuchsia and so on. She always wanted to know your favorite color as hers was any shade of green.

She was enrolled in St. Mary's Hospital Hospital daycare, or as she called it school, since 2010. The teachers, kids and parents loved Micayla and everyone knew who she was. She loved helping her classmates. We think at times she thought she was the teacher. The words she lived by were, "I can do it."

When Micayla received an iPad, she loved and cared for it. She knew how to operate all the functions and features. It was cute to see our lefty using her left hand to maneuver the keyboard or sliding function. She always strived to get 5 stars, which are the best, in all the games that she played.

She appreciated sports and Bookie enjoyed kicking her soccer ball around, tumbling or doing splits or just watching a football game on TV. The highlight of her day on Wednesdays was when the gymnastic bus came to the daycare to train. She enjoyed music and her favorite instrument is drums. She always said, when she grew up she was going to be a ballerina, soccer player, gymnast, basketball player and a docy or with a band. Cay also loved animals and her favorite are elephants.

We know Micayla is in heaven with her Father God. That is what she called her heavenly Father. Micayla loved the Lord. On Sundays she would say "Let's get ready to go to Jesus house." Tinkabut would not eat or go to bed without saying a prayer. Her favorite prayer was "Our father Who Art in Heaven" and her favorite saying was "God ot Your Back"!

Micayla is survived by her mother, Charisha Dean-Hubbard; her father, James Sinnie; her grandmothers; Carolyn Dean and Yvonne Sinnie; her great grandmother; Julia Boyd; uncles Jamelle Dean, Christopher Dean, and Emanuel Mason; aunt Dorothy Booker; great uncles, Fred Boyd, Robert Dungee, Jr. and Donny Hofler; godparents; Lysa Glunt; Mitch Ware and Frank Robinson and many classmates and friends.

Micayla ,you will never be forgotten. You will live on in our hearts and minds forever and it is an honor and a privilege to know and love you. You always said,"I love my family" and we love you to infinity and beyond!

“ To the family and friends of Micayla Yvonne Dean-Sinnie I send my deepest condolences to you, death is never a happy time-especially in the death of a young child. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.

“ There are no words that I can say that will ease the pain of the death of your little girl but I hope these words from God's word the Bible will help. ".....And Jehovah God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:.3, 4) So sorry for your loss!!!

“ I'm still so stunned that you are gone. You were always our little helper and mini teacher in our toddler classroom. You always amazed me at how smart and way beyond your years you were. Your spunk and sass always put a smile on our faces. You will be missed so so much! Rest in peace sweet girl.
