

Michael A. Christian

May 19, 1960 - October 29, 2008

MICHAEL ANTHONY CHRISTIAN, son of Herman R. and Patricia L. Christian, was born on May 19, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on the twenty-ninth day of October after a lengthy illness. He received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System and obtained his high school diploma from Northern High School. He was employed by Curtis Steel Company, Staples Stores, and retired from the Maryland Transit Administration after eight years due to medical reasons. From 1982-1985, Michael served in the United States Army as a Tactical Communications Systems Operator and Mechanic. Michael will be remembered for the immense amount of loyalty and devotion he offered to his family and friends. In any situation, he was always a shoulder to cry on and offered himself as a confidante. His love for computers and all electronics became the strait he was know for. It wasn't uncommon to simply mention your favorite artist to Michael and receive a one of a kind, personalized copy of their greatest hits before finishing the conversation! He leaves to mourn: his loving daughter, Lynnora Christian; his mother and father, Patricia and Herman Christian; brother and sister, Charles Christian and Michele Christian; five nieces, Kiera, Camille, Taneka, Quanette and Dysha; two godchildren, Kendra Leon and LaKeisha Hunt; one sister-in-law, Satya Christian; three aunts, Barbara Johnson, Angela Clark, and Deborah Connie, two uncles and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 loving assures us that our enemy death will be destroyed and Acts 24:15 declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from family, friends and the loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Michele & the Christian Family, What a friend we hvae in Jesus. All our sins and grief he bears. What a priviledge to carry, everything to God in prayer. Look to the hills which cometh your strength. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May Heaven shine upon each of you. “ I offer my deepest condolences to the family of Michael. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to grips with, and it is something that no family should have to go through. Jehovah God didnt intend for man to get sick and die, and one day soon he promises that our enemy death, will be done away with. Isaiah 65:17 promises, "For here i am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." So even the memory of the saddness we all go through will be a thing of the past. Then all of the dead in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." I offer to share some more of the many blessings Jehovah has in store for mankind, so please feel free to contact me on my e-mail. May Jehovah God give you the comfort and the strength that you need to carry on. 1sr Cor 15;26, John 5:28,29###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
