

Michael A. Clawson

February 7, 1959 - October 28, 2002

Michael Andre Clawson, the son of Bertha Y. Clawson and the late Elmo L. Clawson, was born February 7, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. Michael graduated from Lake Clifton Senior High School in 1977 and continued his education at Baltimore City Community College. He was employed at Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point. In September 1994, Michael relocated to Atlanta, Georgia where he was employed by the Atlanta Regional Distribution Center, Inc. Michael was a member of New Pilgrim Baptist Church. He was extremely friendly and his magnetic personality attracted many friends. He also had a very competitive spirit and endeavored to have the final statement in any aggressive conversation. His personality influenced his friendship and subsequent marriage to April C. Johnson on February 1, 1991. This relationship significantly changed his life. He became a loving husband, in addition to becoming a more understanding son, father and brother. After a brief illness, Michael departed this life on October 28, 2002. He leaves to mourn: his wife, April C. Clawson; daughter, Charlene Davis; mother, Bertha Y. Clawson; brother; James E. Clawson; three sisters, Mary E. Stancil, Dorothy I. Clawson and Jacquelyn M. Clawson; two granddaughters, Ny'iesha and Shabra' Wilkes; two aunts, Bernice Coleman and Ethel Clawson; two uncles, Wilbert Clawson and Benjamin Clawson; father and mother-in-law, Charles and Willigean Johnson; brother-in-law, Alonzo Stancil; sisters-in-law, Terry Clawson and Hausa Johnson; four nieces, five nephews, four grandnieces, two grandnephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
