“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your loss. I send my condolences to the family. But Jehovah God offers us a hope in the Bible. John 5:28,29 says "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Thus we must do Jehovah's will and wait on him until he fulfills his promises.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Even in September of 2006, I still miss my uncle. We just lost my mother (his sister last month) and all of the memories of us growing up as kids will stay in my heart forever. I love my family and wish them peace and love. Uncle Michael - Thanks for all of the memories.##imported-begin##Renee##imported-end##
