January 29, 1991 - July 22, 2023

Michael O'Neil Akrie, Jr, entered into eternal life on July 22, 2023. He was born January 29, 1991 to Michael O. Akrie, Sr. and Mary B. Akrie. He was affectionally known as Mike Mike, Lil Mike, Buster and mama's Tank Man.

Michael was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents Roy L. & Martha Braxton Akrie and his maternal grandfather Joseph M. Dabney and other relatives.

Michael accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized at Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church, New Kent, VA.

Over the course of his life, he endured health challenges but through it all he continued to trust God. His favorite scripture was Isaiah 54:17 which states "No weapon formed against you shall prosper"

Michael was educated in the New Kent County School System and graduated in 2010. He attended Virginia Union University. He was employed at Jewett Machine Manufacturing Co., Inc.

Michael had a natural ability for mechanical vehicle work and could fabricate almost anything when it came to vehicle mechanics, learning many traits from his father. He was passionate about drag racing and he enjoyed racing his Mustang. He was working towards expanding his business, Akrie's Racing. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing. Most of all he loved his children Aaden and Morgan.

Michael leaves to cherish his memories; son Aaden Michael Akrie; daughter Morgan LaShell Akrie; parents Michael O. Akrie, Sr. and Mary B. Akrie; sister Ashley M. Davis (Oliver); nephew Braxton Davis; grandmother Dorothy A. Dabney; Godmother Melinda Greene and Godfather Dion Akrie . Numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends (devoted; Barron Winston, Wesley Coles and Te'Varis Bradby).

The family expresses sincere appreciation to everyone for their many acts of kindness and prayers during this time of bereavement. Monetary expressions of love and support given to the family will be placed in an account for his children, Aaden and Morgan.
