

Michael Alexander

October 28, 1949 - May 3, 2023

MICHAEL ALEXANDER, oldest son of Audrey and Perry Alexander, brother of Perry, father of Maco (all whom preceded him in death), was born on October 28, 1949.

Mikey, Goldie or just Mike, as he was affectionately known, was a great person to share space and time with! He would give his last just to see you smile; just never, ever ask him for his National beer.

Mike worked various jobs, and his favorite was working for Globe Poster Company. He did join the Army but had to be discharged after finding out he had an illness. He was an old television classics buff, but a diehard horror buff. He loved everything about Halloween, and even though he was born on October 28th, he celebrated his birthday on the 31st. In the basement where he spent most of his time and which he called his apartment, this was evident. It is decorated with skulls, bats, pumpkins and skeletons, all kinds of crazy, spooky things. And on every wall, table or stand there are pictures of family!

Mike still resided in the family home, and cooking his spam in the microwave was done almost everyday; laughing and joking about his team the Redskins and refusing to call his team by any other name! He was stubborn at times like that. With his jokester side, he could make anything funny. He will be so truly missed.

He leaves to celebrate his life: two devoted sisters, Suzette and Audrey; three daughters, Monette, Miyko and Kimberly Alexander; ten grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Keisha; three nieces, Patrice, Simone and Lynn; four nephews, Andre, Dominiq, Pierre and Devaun; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.
