

Michael Allen Elliott

September 17, 1969 - August 12, 2007

Mr. Michael A. Elliott, the son of Verdel “Peggy” Elliott and the late Eugene E. Elliott, III, was born in Charleston, South Carolina, September 17, 1969. He entered into eternal rest in God’s Kingdom on Sunday, August 12, 2007. Michael was born with the Sickle Cell Anemia disease, which caused many obstacles throughout his life including his disability. He graduated from the William S. Baer School in Baltimore, Maryland. He was employed for seventeen years by Emerge, Inc., a vocational rehabilitative organization for those who are physically and/or mentally challenged. Michael was a diligent worker who warmed the hearts of all who knew him. He was a devoted son and brother with a very loving spirit. Although he was disabled at an early age, he never complained about his afflictions or allowed others to feel sorry for him. He was truly an inspiration to all he encountered. Michael leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted mother; two sisters, Alicia Jones and Wanda Yates; two brothers-in-law, Michael L. Jones and Howard T. Yates, Jr.; three nieces, Danielle, Sydney and Kyla; two nephews, Howard III and Michael; uncle, Allen Singleton; aunt, Virginia Boyd; two great-granddaunts, a great-granduncle, two aunts, and a host of other cousins and friends

Tribute Wall

“ Michael Allen Elliott

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Michael Allen Elliott

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hello ! Elliott's ! May you all be having comfort in knowing that others care and sent their fellow feeling. We all can be encourage by Michael example of enduring all in life and looking to the future for better things as Ps.145:16 say. The time is coming when no one will ever be sick or die at all. I am looking forward to that time coming and I know you all are too since we pray for it in the LORD Pray, for God's Kingdom to come and his Will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. Something to think about. May all the many cherished memories of Michael stay close to you all on the journey life.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Rev 21:4 lets us know that one day death will be no more. Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." "The former things have passed away. "And the one seated on the throne says, "Look! "I am making all things new." So one day there will be no more pain or sorrow, and death will be a thing of the past. 1st Cor 15:26 also makes this promise, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." One day, if we are obedient servants of Jehovah God, he promises that we will see our loved ones come back to life,"##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##G. Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM