

Michael Anthony Allen, Sr.

August 25, 1960 - December 2, 2012

The life of Michael Anthony Allen Sr. began August 25th , 1960 to the late Elder Earl H. Allen and Madeline P. Allen, in Richmond, VA.

At the tender age of 16, he decided to make a life changing decision and enlisted in the United States Navy. After enlisting, he met his soul mate Lisa Ann McAfee and shortly married afterwards. They raised a beautiful family, and shared a bountiful life together.

While proudly serving his country, Michael obtained an Associate's of Arts degree from Saint Leo College of Florida; a Bachelor's of Sceince from Southern Illinois University; and also a Master's degree from Troy State University, all within 22 months.

Michael dedicated his life to the United States Navy for 20 years. After doing so, he obtained employment with General Dynamics (formerly known as Anteon). He eventually transferred over into the United States Government (Department of the Navy).

Michael departed this life on December 2, 2012, in Richmond, VA. He leaves behind to cherish his memories, a loving devoted wife Lisa A. McAfee Allen and also:
