“ To the family of Michael Cook, I send my heartfelt sympathy. Even though he's gone, you'll never forget his wonderful smile, and the joyous times you shared together over the years. Remember too, that one day your loved one will come to life again in the promised resurrection, because the bible lets us know at Daniel 12,2 that many of those who are sleeping in the ground of dust will wake up." We are from the dust, and we go back to the dust, but this is not the end of us; because one day John 5:28,29 promises that the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. May the thought of one day being with Michael again be a sustaining force in your lives, and help you to cope with the pain of losing him. Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. " May Jehovah God wrap his loving arms around you, and help you to carry on.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Ashley, right now i know that you just might want to be left alone. me, myself there are still nights and days i cry about my father and no one can fill that place in my heart but God knows how to soothe that aching pain that comes every now and then because our fathers are now sleeping waiting for that trumpet to sound to meet jesus in the air. i thank God that you sang that song at the homegoing service i felt much better when i saw you as you sang getting stronger and now i feel everything is going to be alright I am glad to know that we have God in our lives to help us take one day at a time love you Ash.##imported-begin##faith demby ajadi##imported-end##

“ Dear Valerie, Ashley, Michael & Cory: Words cannot express our deepest sympathy and sadden hearts at the lost of our dear friend and Brother in Christ, Mike. Please take comfort in remembering that "to be absent of the body is to be present with the Lord." Your family remains steadfast in our prayers. Love Always.##imported-begin##Rev. & Mrs. Nathaniel D. “ My condolences to the Family: Although I personally didn't know Mike well, he was definitely part of my family, the Lee Family. He was a brother to my brother, Wallace Lee; and a son to my mother, Grace Lee who he affectionately called Mama Lee. We were very blessed to have him in our family. He will definitely be missed and will always be in our hearts. Love and Blessings, Stephanie (Wally's oldest sister in Atlanta)###imported-begin##Stephanie Lee###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Cook. Job chapter 14, verses 7, 15 assures us- "For there exists hope for even a tree. If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again, and its own twig will not cease to be. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." May you receive much comfort and hope every time you think about this wonderful resurrection promise found in the Bible.###imported-begin##Mrs. Hill###imported-end##

“ We want to extend our deepest sympathy to the Cook Family. Tom, my best friend, may you find comfort in the Lord. Mrs. Cook and family, Mike was a good friend of mine. Whenever he came to Lynchburg, it was a joy. Take care and may God forever shine upon you.###imported-begin##George & Sharon Hillman###imported-end##
