

Michael Anton Lambirth

June 10, 1969 - October 16, 2001

Michael "Freckles" Anton Lambirth, son of the late Francine Lambirth, was born a "twin" on June 10, 1969 in Baltimore, Maryland. His life was suddenly taken on October 16, 2001. "Freckles," as we all knew him, received his education at Walbrook High School and also received technical training at Woodstock Job Corps. Michael was employed by Emerge Company, as a residential counselor, where he was very much appreciated and well loved because of his dedication to the clients he served. "Freckles" made a positive impact wherever he travelled. His heart was as big as his smile. He loved people and people loved him. Mike had a passion for life. Mike "Love", as he was known on his bowling league had a high score of 290 or above. Micheal was a party animal "who partied clean and sober". Whatever line dance was out you could rest assure Mike knew it. He danced on skates. Mike loved to dress, he frequented "HOBO Shop" and could always be seen sporting the Hobo line of clothing. "Freckles" will stay in our hearts forever. He leaves to cherish his memory: his grandmother, Marie aka Mama; four children, Michael Jr., Miquel, Hykeem, and daughter Dishonne; one brother, Warren; three sisters, twin sister, Michelle, Kenyatta, and Kimberly; two brothers-in-law, Richard and William; two uncles, Eric Williams and John Cooper; two aunts, Charlene Hardy and Carolyn Scott; his fiancée, Diana Alston and two daughters Atia and Alexis; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
