

Michael Armad Hope

April 14, 1951 - February 21, 2008

MICHAEL ARMAD HOPE, son of the late Mildred Stewart and Clarence Rice, was born on April 14, 1951 in Baltimore, MD. He departed his life on February 21, 2008, after a lengthy illness. He received his education in Baltimore public schools and later attended Job Corps where he received his G.E.D. Upon completion of his education, he became employed full time with B&O Railroad for a number of years. He later started working for Bethlehem Steel from which he retired after thirty-five years of service. He met and later married Bessie Little on April 19, 1969; and out of this union four children were born, Michelle, Yvonne, Michael Jr. and Tonya. Michael loved sports, and his favorite was baseball. He was an avid television watcher, and his favorite movies and shows were The Fugitive, Walker, Texas Ranger, and CSI Miami. His one love interest was Westerns. Michael was known for his "known it all attitude" and his George Jefferson style of dancing. Michael made numerous friends wherever he went and will be truly missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Bessie N. Hope; three daughters, Michelle Hope, Yvonne Hope-Miles and Tonya Hope; son, Michael A. Hope Jr.; three grandchildren, Chanelle Goods, Darius Brown and Damond Dorman; mother-in-law, Audrey Little; son-in-law, Antoine Miles; sister, Valerie Stewart; two brothers, Ira Fleming and Louis Hope; five sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our enemy death will be destroyed. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort, hope and strength as you read and think about the wonderful promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
