

Michael Elias Banrey

August 29, 1982 - July 11, 2011

A Time To Be Born: Michael Elias Banrey made his grand debut into this world on Sunday, August 29, 1982 at Lutheran Medical Center in Brooklyn, NY. The oldest son of Mary B. Banrey.

Michael accepted Jesus Christ as His personal Lord and Savior at an early age, his love of Christ led him to continue to worship with Liberation Church.

Michael attended Bushwick High School in Brooklyn, NY and was currently enrolled in the University of Phoenix in his sophomore year.

A Time To Grow: In 2008 Michael married the love of his life, Inora Phifer. This union was blessed with one son Kamari Joseph Banrey. Michael was a fan of all sports and an enthusiastic NY Yankees, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Heat fan. He was a devoted father who loved teaching his son Kamari (Moon) how to play games and most of all be respectful to others. He was a very kind and generous young man who absolutely adored his family and loved spending time with them.

A Time To Build: Michael loved writing poetry and philosophizing about life as he saw it. He began honing his craft in hope of helping others with internal struggles. Because of his general appreciation and immense appetite, Michael began writing his book titled: "Freedom through Acknowledgement and Captivity." Michael lived his life on purpose and with passion.

To Time To Die: On Monday, July 11, 2011, Michael exited this stage of life. The "light" went out. the music stopped and Michael took his final bow as the curtains closed.

To Celebrate His Life and Continue His Great Legacy of Love and Laughter, He Leaves His Supporting Cast: his wife, Inora Banrey, his son, Kamari Banrey; his mother, Mary B. Banrey; his father, Darryl Chavis; his "special" aunt, Annette Banrey; his grandmother, Maria Colon-Perez; three brothers, Lamar, Mitchell & Micah; two sisters, Janae and Miracle; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and in-laws, all who loved and cherished the life and spirit of Michael.
