Michael Boyd was born in Baltimore, Maryland on February 29, 1956. The youngest of five sons born to Maryline Boyd and the late West Lee Boyd. Michael was called to Glory on October 17, 2002. Michael was educated in the Baltimore City School Systems and graduated from Northwestern Senior High. Michael was employed at the Kennedy Krieger Institute where he was a dedicated employee. He was highly favored by his co-workers. Michael gave his life to Christ and was baptized at the Mt. Hebron Baptist Church while under the leadership of Rev. Walter Brown. “ "To God Be The Glory" I remember the very frist time I met Mike and he made me laugh and put a big smile on my face. Two years has past sense that day; but everyday sense, no matter what I was going through; He always said something to make me laugh in big way. Sometime all we had to do is look at each other because we were thinking the same thing. To his family, I don't know who you but please except my prayers that I have prayed for you and know that God has Micheal in his loving arms and have left some happy people here to carry on his memory. God blessed up with an opputunity to receive the wonderful gift that Mike had to comfort others and make them laugh. He will truly be missed. Thank you Lord for his presents in out lives.
