

Michael D. Wilson

January 23, 1973 - June 5, 2008

Michael Dante'e Wilson, son of Rosalind Schwind (Wilson) and Louis Smith, was born on January 23, 1973 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a forty day battle in Johns Hopkins Hospital, the waters subsided on the 41st day and he crossed over into eternity. He departed this life at 3:45PM on June 5, 2008 after a seven year illness. "Mr. Wilson", as he was affectionately known, was educated int the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Baltimore City College High School in 1991. He was No. 2 in his division in wrestling and won numerous trophies and matches. Michael attended the University of Maryland at Eastern Shore, majoring in criminal Justice and worked many years in the Social Health field. Michael was baptized at a young age at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church. He rededicated his life on Easter Sunday 2005 and became a member of New Covenant Tabernacle, Michael was instrumental in the recording of New Covenant Tabernacle's Voices of Worship Team "Praise Him". Music was Michael's true passion. He wrote and recorded numerous raps and hosted the Monday Night Events, "Hip Hop 101" at the 5 Seasons Club in Baltimore. He was also an entrepreneur - opening a clothing store, restaurant, and a music store. Michael was a leader. He mentored many; young and old. He loved life and lived each day to the fullest even during times of sickness. He was very giving of himself and was loved by family and friends. His jovial and contagious laugh will continue to resound in our memory forever. He will be greatly missed. Out of all of Michael's accomplishments his greatest was his relationship with Jesus Christ. Through his suffering he gained a Kingdom perspective on life. His final words to his mother were that he wouldn't trade this experience for anything in the world because it brought him closer to Christ and he learned to value life. He leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Tar; daughter Mikael; stepdaughter Tarshae; stepson Macy; god-son Jordan Whitehead, devoted mother, Rosalind Schwind; dedicated stepfather and Pastor, Thomas R. Schwind; a loving father and stepmother, Louis and Dorothy Smith; brother Antoine Smith, sister, Danita Smith; grandmother, a sister-cousin, Rhonda Whitehead, Dorothy Davis, godmother, Sharon Brown, one great aunt Carolyn Melvin and two aunts Earleen Smith and Arleen Smith, eight uncles, William "Sonny" Smoot, Norman "Butchie" Wilson; Morris Gary, Tony Smith, Steven Smith, David Boyd, Jerome Cosby, and Melvin Davis, mother-in-law, Sunday Powell, father-in-law, Johnny Powell, sister-in-law, Tonya Miller, and Toni Powell, one brother-in-law, Rashun Thompson, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Rosaline and Tom, Here is a wonderful poem. It spoke comfort to me and I hope it does the same for you. Death is a Doorway On the "Wings of Death" the "Sould Takes Flight" Into the land where "There Is No Night" -- For those who believe What the Savior said Will rise in glory though they be dead... So death comes to us Just to "Open the Door" To the KINGDOM OF GOD And LIFE EVERMORE. - Helen Steiner Rice###imported-begin###Joe and Wilhelmena Braswell###imported-end##

“ Dear Roslyn, Sorry time didn't permit us to extend our condolences in person. However, prayer, which knows no boundaries of time and space, went up for you. We remember Michael as a friendly, pleasant, polite child and young man. Sorry you had to say "see you later" so soon. May God grant you all the strength and fond memories you need to sustain you. Remember the fun we used to have. Sincerely and in Christ, K & Eddie###imported-begin###K. & Eddie Bee###imported-end##

“ To the family I send my heartfelt condolences. May you reflect on the wonderful promises of God found in his word, the bible. As you mourn the loss, remember that there is the hope of the resurrection. John 5:28,29 lets us know that one day all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out to life eternal. God will wipe away your tears and pain, this he has promised. So keep trusting in him, and looking to him for comfort and the needed strength to help you to cope at this time.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
