“ I am truly sorry for the death of your loved one. I hope the kind expressions of good friends will help to sustain you. At such times what comforts my family is Jehovah's promise of a resurrection. Acts 24:15 says that there will be a resurrection of both the righteous, and the unrighteous." May you find comfort and solace in his promises to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Dailey. As the days and the years go by, please be comforted by Almighty God words which says at Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever...for Jehovah himself has spoken it." Yes, Almighty God will eradicate death forever and will make it possible for our dead love ones to be resurrected under peaceful conditions. (Acts 24:15) Please be comforted by these encouraging words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is with your family and friends, some said that time is a great healer of pain and sorrow,and I hope that the time that has passed has put you on the way to healing, losing someone you love is never easy,memories are Jehovah God's gift to us, let them help you to heal, in time the memories will come without the pain and you will be able to focus not on your loss, but on the joys and blessings you shared by having Mr Dailey in your lives, Jehovah the God of all comfort will be there for you, call on him, he really cares.
