“ To the family and friends. When we experience the loss of a loved one there are no immediate words to take away the pain. Please remember that Jehovah God is here for you and can bring comfort to the weary heart... At Isaiah 66:13 he let's us know: "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." Trust in God, draw close to him, and "he himself will sustain you... Never will he allow the righteous one to totter." (Ps. 55:22)##imported-begin##Debi##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Michael (Chicken) was one of my favorite people growing up back in the old neighborhood. My brothers and I, Fingers, and Eric remember Michael fondly. We are all saddened by your loss, and we will miss him. The last time I saw him was when I visited my parents back at 3824 Greenspring back in 1984 we talked for an hour or so. Unfortunately, while I was in the service I lost contact with so many people. Michael was like a big brother to me in a lot of ways. I'll miss him.##imported-begin##James & Linda Williams##imported-end##

“ I apologize for not being there in your moment of sorrow. Just remember that God does not make any mistakes and that chicken is in a better place. Khaki I know that you miss him very much but if we continue to love and cherish his memory he will live on in our hearts. I love you and tell everyone that God is able and is too wise to make a mistake. Love Roni (your cousin in Rochester, NY)##imported-begin##Roni##imported-end##

“ Mike has been coming in to our store for 7 years. He became not a customer, but a friend. We traded baseball hats and chided him that the "B" on his Raven hat was for Boston. He was always smiling and was someone that made the workplace fun at times. We are all in total shock at the news and are deeply saddened. We can only wish the Davis family the best.##imported-begin##Park Heights Check Cashing##imported-end##

“ I offer my deepest and heartfelt condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a loved one in death is truly the most difficult and painful event that any family goes through. Yet the passing of time is a healer. Though we never forget, in time the pain does get a little easier to bear. One day soon, we will no longer have to say goodbye to our loved ones, because God will end all death and it's many causes, and he will bring our dead ones back to life and back into our arms. The following scriptures can comfort you whenever you are feeling down, and give you a hope to cling to. Isaiah 33:24, and Isaiah 25:8 which lets us know that all sickness will end, and Jehovah will swallow up death forever. Acts 24:15, and John 5:28,29 lets us know that the dead will be ressurected back to life, and Mark 5:38-43 tells the true life account of how Jesus ressurected a little girl. As you read and reflect on these scriptures, may they bring you much comfort, and peace as you await the day when you can see Michael alive once again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
