

Michael Devonne Reynolds

May 30, 1991 - February 19, 2004

Phenomenal children are a joy to know and a joy to love. Michael D. Reynolds Jr., is one such child. A phenomenal child has a personality and manner all his own. He touches people in a positive way and his only desire is to live life to the fullest, according to the will of God. Michael Reynolds Jr. was a phenomenal child. He began life in Baltimore, Maryland on May 30, 1991. He was the first and oldest child born to Michael Sr. and Cara Reynolds. His life was filled with challenges from its inception but he never allowed his disabilities or his limitations to quantify or define who he was. He triumphed over all adversity despite the odds and became the apple of everyone's eye who has occasion to interact with him. He took on challenges that would humble the most ardent, normal functioning individual. Nothing discouraged his will or his desire to do what he set his mind to do. Failure in his life was not an option, he never stopped trying to master a skill until he reached a level of proficiency that pleased him. His extreme determination and his unyielding passion for mastery made him a model to be admired by all he met. A phenomenal child has a positive impact on all the people they touch. Whether at home, at school, at church, visiting family or just hanging out at the mall, Michael exuded an aura of happiness and peace with himself as well as the world. Michael fought the good fight and finished his course on Thursday, February 19, 2004 at home with his family. He leaves many to rejoice in his memory including: his mother and father, Michael Sr. and Cara Reynolds; two sisters, Devonna Michelle and Jasmine Marie; grandparents, William and Carmelia Huntley (Virginia Beach, (Virginia), Phillip Sr. and Carolyn Reynolds (Columbus, Ohio); uncle, Phillip Jr. and (Sherri) Reynolds (West Virginia); three aunts, Stephanie (Harold) Brown (Hubert, North Carolina), Sharon Cheatham (New York, New York) and Joyce A. Winston (New York, New York); and a host of cousins, other relatives, and many devoted friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die and heart wrenching when a child falls victim to death. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Michael Reynolds, Jr., I was so sorry to read of your loss. His life was cut short by that enemy death (1 Cor. 15:26). It is my hope that you find comfort in the words of Jesus Christ found at John 5:28,29 who said that there will be a resurrection of those in the memorial tomb (where little Michael is right now awaiting the call to come on out). Please read that scripture as well as Revelation 21:3,4 when you need comfort.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. The loss of a child is a terrible trauma to the parents. Our family finds much comfort and solace in the loving promises of the Bible, especially during times of deep sorrow. This I wish to share with you. Isaiah 26:19 says- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." And the Bible assures us of what the world will be like then at Revelation 21:4- "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." It is my hope that these words give you much comfort also.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Cara & Devon, We regret that we can not be with you pysicaly at this time, but we want you to know that our hearts and souls are with you spiritually. We know that you will miss Michael dearly, but it's better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all. Remember that God is too wise to make mistakes and too just to do wrong. Michael was a special child and God gave him to special parents who couldn't have been more loving and caring. You gave Michael a life filled with joy and happiness and most of all love. May the peace of God, which passeth all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowlegde and love of God. We will continue to pray for you and your family. Not because we know how to pray, but because we know you will need prayer to help you make it through this difficult time. The Hilliards, Robert, Carolyn, Freddie, Gary, Kevin and Robbie We Love You!###imported-begin##Carolyn Hilliard###imported-end##
