

Michael D. Fuller Sr.

July 16, 1969 - March 14, 2021

God's Will

MICHAEL DARNELL FULLER was born July 16, 1969 in Baltimore, Md. His earthly life ended in a tragic accident March 14, 2021 in Baltimore, Maryland.

The Blossoming Life was celebrated by his proud parents the late Jacquelin Doggett and David Fuller.

The Beginning

A gift of love and absolute joy of a healthy baby boy. The mystery of life a baby boy so unique, a little tiny miracle so perfect and sweet. As Michael got older his legs got longer and he inherited the nickname Tall. He was a fun loving child always up under his mother. Michael was given support, wisdom and structure from his grandparents the late Joseph Sr. and Shirlene Doggett.

Michael attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He was introduced to Christ at Ames Memorial Baptist Church and participated in their Sunday bible school and their summer vacation bible school.

Treasured Moments

Michael possessed a phenomenal unbreakable relationship with his family especially with his wife and children. He was a God fearing man, very respectful yet unapologetic. His word was bond, you could count on him, if he told you he's going to come through for you. Michael enjoyed watching the news and football games, going fishing, and doing crossword puzzles.

His Path

Michael was a good man. He encountered friends wherever he went. He knew that the streets didn't love anybody and to be better is to do better, so he left the streets of Baltimore around the age of nineteen and relocated to North Carolina. Michael had numerous jobs, his love was driving eighteen wheelers trucks. He was employed at Swift Transportation and Epps Trucking Company until he started having health issues with his back.
