

Michael Grant

January 19, 1953 - April 1, 2010

MICHAEL EUGENE GRANT was born on January 19, 1953 in Columbus, Georgia to Virginia Grant and the late Nathaniel Grant. He peacefully departed this life on April 1, 2010 with his family by his side. When Michael, affectionately called Mike, was three years old he moved to Baltimore with his mother, sister and other relatives. Mike was baptized at Christian Unity Baptist Church of Baltimore at the age of twelve. He graduated from Loyola High School 1971 and then attended Towson State University. Mike has always loved home improvement, and worked in this field for over thirty years and eventually started his own business. Mike was joined in holy matrimony to Leah (Mason) on February 28, 1981 and from this union their two daughters Tamara and Jacqueline were born. Although home improvement was Mike's passion, he loved fishing, grilling, hanging out with family and friends, and cooking in the kitchen. Every Sunday his door was open to family and friends to stop by for some of Mike's "famous" fried chicken and there was always enough food to go around. Mike's mom Virginia was his biggest fan, and she tirelessly did her best to care for him even when she was not well herself. Leah and Mike were connected in so many ways, and were always there for one another, and when he became ill, she continued to be right there by his side. Mike was absolutely adored by his daughters, and was a wonderful man who was loved by friends and relatives alike and will truly be missed. Mike leaves to cherish his precious memory: his mother, Virginia Grissom; wife, Leah Mason-Grant; two daughters, Tamara (Kenneth) and Jacqueline Grant; sister, Barbara Jean Grant; father- and mother-in-law Wilbert and Pauline Mason; three uncles, Thomas Grissom (Dorothy), Daniel Grissom and Willie Grissom (Barbara); aunt, Ida Lee Grissom; two uncles-in-law, Hugh Hogue (Paula) and Thurman Hogue (Ruth) and aunt-in-law, Jeanette Ray; brother-in-law, Wilbert Mason Jr. (Annette); two grandchildren, Kenneth and Nyla Scott; five nephews, Gerald Grant, Antwan, Andre, Paul and Dante Mason; two nieces, Leah Mason and Darlita Williams; two great-nephews, TaJuan and Paul Mason Jr.; three great-nieces, Brittany Grant, Kamran and Lyric Mason; and a host of cousins, other relatives and dear friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Mr. Grant. Please accept my deepest sympathy on the passing of your loved one. May Jehovah God comfort you and provide peace for you in this time of mourning. Please find solace in knowing that Jehovah God promises promises to remove death forever at Isaiah 25:8. He also gives us the hope of seeing once again, those we have lost in death, at Acts 24:15 & Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Marilynn Wright##imported-end##

“ I love, and miss you very much daddy. Thank you for ALWAYS being there for me and Tam. I couldn't have asked for a better father. I just wish you could have stayed around to watch your grandchildren grow, and to give me and Tamara away when it's time for us to get married. You will never be forgotten, and will ALWAYS be loved by your girls. Save a spot for me dad. I will see you again, and I love you.##imported-begin##Jacqueline Grant##imported-end##
